Early On Michigan

What is Early On? "Early On® Michigan offers early intervention services for infants and toddlers, birth to three years of age, with developmental delay(s) and/or disabilities, and their families." Early On supports families as their children learn and grow. Any child with a concern for delay is eligible for a free Early On evaluation. If a child qualifies the family will receive free in home intervention services based on the child's needs. Please contact Sonya Adams at Early On at 877- 327-5966 or echild@resa.net.

Project Find

What is Project Find? Project Find is a resource for parents and teachers to connect a child with their local school district to determine eligibility for special education supports. This resource is best utilized with Infant Mental Health services to ensure the family is best advocated for within their social/emotional and educational growth. In Michigan any eligible child up through age 25 may receive special educational services. You may submit an education referral for a child in Wayne County by calling 734-334-1393 or visiting www.resa.net/earlychildhood.

Infant Mental Health

What is Infant Mental Health? IMH is a home based intervention and prevention service for children ages birth-6 and pregnant mothers. IMH services offer assistance for children and families with behavioral, developmental, emotional and/or social needs. IMH services include both home/community based interactions with the child and family as well as case management services to link families with community resources and advocate for their well-being in schools, community/government agencies, etc. IMH services are covered by Medicaid, but in some cases, utilize funding dollars which results in either low or no cost to the families, regardless of Medicaid status.
